

Promoting Reproductive Health and Rights of Women through the Legal System Project.

This includes Moot Court Competitions, Tribunals, Multi-media campaigns and Public Hearings. These are informal hearings used to expose increasing incidents of women's human rights violations and abuses at all levels of our society and bring to the fore, cultural/traditional and religious practices that inhibit women in the enjoyment of their human rights.